

CORDOBA DOVE & DUCK HUNT (AGH1)

$2,880***

Per Person

5 NIGHTS / 6 DAYS / 8 HUNTS

Dove shooting in Cordoba has no closed season. These challenging, high flying birds produce up to five broods per year and do not migrate like other birds, which is why this outfitter has a strong and stable dove population in this area. This area is also widely recognized as one of the finest wild duck shooting regions in the world. There is a good variety of speices populating the islands of the Parana River and the rice fields located in the surroundings of the lodge. With twelve different species of ducks, there is variety that will be seen and shot during each hunt.

During the dove hunt guests are accommodated in a private lodge located within the hunting fields and after the first couple of days, once the dove hunts are over, hunters are then transferred to another private lodge located by the shores of the Parana River in the neighboring province of Santa Fe to complete the trip duck hunting.

Included in the package are accommodations in first-class lodges, meals, professional hunter-guide and bird boys, gun cleaning, transportation during hunt and 1,000 shells at dove lodge.

* Price is based on a minimum of four hunters.
